

TO LET OBERLIN OUT

Pitcher Will Be Turned Over to Minneapolis Club.

ALTIZER RECOVERING SLOWLY

Castillon Has Forbidden Infielder to Don Uniform Until His Health Recovers—Minneapolis Club Reports at Galveston with Several Former Washington Players on Team.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Galveston, Tex., March 20.—Mike Cantillon and the select members of the Minneapolis American Association ball club arrived here this morning for a stay of from ten days to two weeks.

In the Minneapolis party were Jim Block, the catcher Washington got from Galveston last year to help out when Blankenship was hurt; Oscar Graham, the young southpaw pitcher Washington tried last year, and who proved one of the slickest in the business at catching runners off the bases, and Buck Freeman, the Boston outfielder Washington bought last year but shifted to Minneapolis without using him. Andy Oyler, another ex-Washington player, is due here in a day or two, he having been held back by business engagements. Yesterday, the ex-White Sox utility man is under reserve to Minneapolis, but refuses to play this year.

With the Millers was Jimmy Callahan, the ex-pitcher, at present a shining light among the Chicago semi-professional independent managers, and a thorn in the flesh of both the American and National leagues. Jimmy is also doing baseball on the spring trip for the Minneapolis Tribune, he being an old hand at grinding out the dope.

Hard Practice for Team.

Delayed baggage prevented the Millers from practicing this afternoon, but the Washington Regulars did get in some of sprouts, with Manager Cantillon behind the box urging the pitchers to show their best.

Bill Kay, the Martinsburg wonder, was taken off the Washington Yankee squad to remain here and be picked up by Minneapolis, for which he will play the outfield, but at present he counts as a National. Bill is really too weak from a recurrence of his attack of grip to be much account to any club at present, but brother Mike Cantillon knows that, and is not charging his poor work in practice here against him.

While Oberlin has not been formally turned over to the Millers, he is practically the property of that club now.

Davy Altizer is not recovering as rapidly as anticipated from his severe chill of last Monday, and looks extremely bad. He should have been in the hospital on going around, although Joe Cantillon positively forbade him to don a uniform yesterday or to-day. He wants to go to Houston tomorrow, but there is small chance he will play. Cates, the new pitcher, is playing third in the absence of Altizer, and is not half bad. He is showing form as a batter with extra base privileges, and has a good form for the infield throw.

The Washington Regulars are to play the St. Louis Nationals two more games for the "cellar" championship in Houston tomorrow and Sunday. Falkenberg and Keedy will pitch to-morrow and the line-up will be the same as last week, except that Cates will be at third.

FANS RETIRED WAGNER?

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 20.—It has developed that the real reason for Wagner retiring from baseball is a grievance against the big German has against the local baseball fans. While he has for years been a universal favorite throughout the National League circuit, patrons of Exposition Park have fallen shy in appreciation of the fact, giving him scant credit for his achievements, but ever ready to use the hammer when he happened to trip up in the field or fail to slant the opposing pitcher's flimsy against the fence. While open gambling is put down here, many wagers are made on every game by local plungers before they enter the park, and it is this clique that is really responsible for the great star's action.

It will be remembered that Clarence Baumont and Claude Ritchey, now with the Boston Nationals, offered the same complaint after being transferred from the local team. Wagner feels that, as he is in a position to be independent, he has a right and privilege to break away from the abuse of these knackers. Honus was turned down two outlay offers within a week, as he was not coming on the salary question, nor with the local owners. He is sincere about retiring, and local fans have given up all hope of seeing him in a Pittsburgh uniform the coming season.

Hal Chase Hitting the Ball.
Atlanta, Ga., March 20.—The Highlanders yesterday afternoon kept up their batting streak and swept the Atlanta team off its feet, winning the game in a romp by the score of 9 to 2. Chase's batting was responsible for more than half of the Yankees' runs, and his fielding was at times sensational. Sherry also cleverly fielded his position, and Bell, another substitute, who relieved Keeler after the first inning, gave a good account of himself at the bat.

Cubs May Release Players.
Vicksburg, Miss., March 20.—Chicago's champions may begin trimming down the team to playing form this week, according to reports received here. It is reported that Walsh and Evans will go, and that there is a trade on involving Blaine Durbin, by which Durbin will go to an American Association team, providing Chicago can obtain waivers for him from the National League club. Because of the absence of Manager Chance it was impossible to confirm the stories.

Two Home Runs for Bradley.
Macon, Ga., March 20.—Bradley's two home runs were featured in yesterday's game, which Cleveland won, 7 to 3. The Naps hit the ball hard, and piled up runs until they were tired out. Macon hit harder than before, Thielman worked but three innings for Cleveland, R. Rhoades finishing.

Boston Assists Olympic Fund.
New York, March 20.—James E. Sullivan, secretary of the American Olympic committee, announced yesterday that the Boston Athletic Association had subscribed $50 to the fund to send a representative team to England for the Olympic games next summer.

COBB SIGNS WITH DETROIT.

Champion Batter Will Join the Detroit Club on Monday.
Detroit, March 20.—Ty Cobb, the American League champion batsman, signed his 1936 contract with Detroit here today. The amount of salary was not given out, but is supposed to be $4,000. Cobb will report to Manager Jennings at Hot Springs next Monday.

YANKEE CAR IN NEVADA.

New York-to-Paris Race Goes West from Goldfield.
Goldfield, Nev., March 20.—The American car in the New York-to-Paris race left Goldfield to-day for the West. It is 3,093 miles from New York and 740 miles ahead of the Italian car, its nearest competitor.

The Italian car left Spring Valley, Wyo., to-day, and began climbing the summit of the Wasatch range, six miles west from the descent into Salt Lake Valley through the canyons is rapid. Spring Valley is ninety-five miles from Ogden.

The German car went through Goshute, Nebr., to-day, and began climbing the French car passed Sydney, Nebr., at 10 o'clock to-day. Sydney is 100 miles east of Cheyenne.

"HACK" REAL MARVEL

Champion Wrestler Seen at Convention Hall.

SPEDDY AS WELL AS STRONG

Russian Lion Convinces More Than a Thousand Spectators that He Is Well Versed in Science of the Mat.

Throws Turner and Mackey, in Addition to His Giant Partners.

Hackenschmidt, the only Hack, that marvel of agility and preponderant strength; world's champion wrestler for six years, and as yet undefeated, was seen for the first time in Washington last night, when fully 1,000 persons assembled at Convention Hall and watched him toss his training partners, veritable giants in size, about the roped arena.

In addition Joe Turner and Rob Roy Mackey, well-known local lights, essayed to withstand the onslaughts of the physical marvel, but they were as pygmies in his hands, and succumbed after a few seconds of unavailing wriggles.

Not only did "The Russian Lion" convince the spectators that he is the strongest man in the world, but showed conclusively in his bouts with his training partners that he knows the wrestling game. Despite his huge size, Hackenschmidt is lightning fast and makes good use of speed.

Last night was the summation of his work which he emerged from a hold, on several occasions he permitted his opponent to get him in what would ordinarily prove a troublesome position, but seemingly without the slightest effort he would break the hold, and in a flash by some dexterous move be on top again.

Turns Turner in Forty Seconds.
Hack's first opponent was Joe Turner. Turner was caught around the waist and gently laid on the mat. After a few spasmodic struggles, Hack sat on him, and Referee Pat O'Connor timely patted the big fellow on the back by way of announcing him victor. All this took just forty seconds.

For the second bout the Lion had as his opponent Rob Roy Mackey. Mackey surprised the crowd by staying one minute and twenty-three seconds, mainly by racing around the ring, with the Russian after him. Mackey can lay claim, however, to have broken a hold on Hack, which he did by a headspring after Hack had gotten him down on the mat. Hack went right after him, and Mackey was forced through the ropes. On his return to the ring, Hack obtained a Nelson and Rob went the way of his predecessor.

Turner decided to try it again, and, profiting by Mackey's example, retained his feet as long as he could, and there lengthened the match a trifle. Turner proved as slippery as an eel, but Hack's great strength enabled him to get a cross-arm hold, with which he threw him in 54 seconds.

Hack's next victim was a strapping youngster named Henry Paulson, 210 pounds, Minneapolis, who weighed 215 pounds, against Hack's 210. Paulson showed some cleverness and broke several holds, but superior strength told, and with one of his famous clutch holds, Hack finally forced the Westerner's shoulders to the mat in 3 minutes and 15 seconds.

German a Worthy Opponent.
After a short rest the Russian went on with Emil Stegmüller in what proved to be the most exciting bout of all. Stegmüller, who travels with Hackenschmidt, weighs 235 pounds and is strong with it. The struggle between these two mountains of nerve and muscle reminded one of the descriptions one has read of the gladiators of old.

In this bout Hackenschmidt was not the aggressor more than half the time as the big German proved a worthy opponent and gave the crowd a hint as to what may be expected when the Russian meets Frank Gotch, the American title holder, for the championship of the world.

It was in this match that the premier grappler convinced his onlookers that he knew how to wrestle. After having his opponent wriggle out of several ominous-looking holds, he turned and grabbed him around the neck and threw him over his head. The German maintained a bridge which Hack failed to break and to obtain the fall Hack followed his opponent's example and bridged on top of him with his arms around his waist, the weight of which forced the German's shoulders slowly but surely to the canvas. The bout lasted for six minutes and sixteen seconds.

In the preliminaries Joe Turner threw Frye King in six minutes, with a body lock, and Mackey and Frank Huesman went ten minutes to a draw.

Penn Quilt Meets Chicago.
Philadelphia, March 20.—Penn's intercollegiate basketball champions leave at noon today for Chicago, where they meet the University of Chicago, to decide the intercollegiate championship of America. The team will arrive there tomorrow morning and play the game the same night, returning on Monday. On Wednesday, Chicago will meet the Red and Blue in Yenching Hall, while the deciding game, if necessary, will be played in New York.

Stewart Stopped Ward.
New York, March 20.—Jim Stewart, a husky local heavy-weight, put a crimp in the athletic aspirations of Bob Ward, protege of "Philadelphia" Jack O'Brien, at the Long Acre Athletic Club last night. The two were engaged to meet for six rounds, but the contest was all over in just two rounds, with Stewart the winner.

DERBY ON FOR TO-DAY

City Park Event Will Wind Up Big Stake Races.

YESTERDAY'S CARD POOR ONE

Selling Entries for Horses that Have Not Won in More Than a Year the Feature—Maritz, with Nicol Up, Breaks Out of the Maiden Class by Winning the Opening Race.

New Orleans, March 20.—The City Park Derby, the second $10,000 race of the local season, will be decided to-morrow, and practically wind up the important stakes to be decided here this season.

The easy victory of Meelick in the Crescent City Derby, a week ago, has practically robbed the race of interest. The same field will start to-morrow, and present indications are that a fast track will prevail.

The programme presented to-day was about one of the worst that has ever graced any racing card. Selling events for horses that have not won in more than a year appeared to hold forth the most interest.

Maritz, with Nicol up, and at the favorite's price, graduated from the maiden ranks by winning the opening race.
